ADVERTISER 75 cents per month.

As anticipated the eleventh annual meeting of the Hawaiian Jockey Club was the most successful meeting ever held in the islands. From the first to the last event on the program interest was at fever heat, almost every horse having admirers beyond number. Promptly at 10 o'clock the day's festivities opened with a bicycle race, in which a number of local wheelmen took part.

1ST-BICYCLE RACE.
Prize: Gold Medal, valued at $20. Entrance fee $1.50. 1 mile dash. Free
for all.
Entries—W. Chapman, Henry Giles,
Geo. Angus, H. E. Walker, N.
Halstead, R. Dexter, Joe Silva.

Walker got the lead and by a dexterous movement got the pole and lead to quarter, when Chapman overtook him and led the pace to the half-mile. Atkinson led from the stretch and came in an easy winner, with Dexter a close second. Time, 2:38.

2D-BICYCLE RACE.
Prize: Gold Medal, valued at $30. Entrance fee $1.50. 5/8 mile dash.
Free for all.
Entries—Henry Giles, George Angus, Ruby Dexter, J. Silva, Jack Atkinson.

This was a rather tame race until the last lap, when Dexter spurred and came under the wire, with Atkinson a close second. Time, 15:51.

3D-HONOLULU PURSE, $200
Running Race; 1/2 mile dash. Free
for all.
Entries—Duke Spencer, Autonomy,
Magnet, Minola.

It took some time to get this race started, nine attempts being made before the horses got away. To the discomfiture of the speculators and sports, Autonomy won, Duke Spencer second. Time 2:51. Spencer was a prime favorite, and it was thought he had a cinch on the race. Superior jockeying by Coast importations outwitted the locals. The horses swerved several times before getting away. Burlingame and McAuliffe were fined for jockeying.

4TH-MERCHANTS PURSE, $200.
Trotting and Pacing, to Harness; 2:40
Class; mile heats, 3 in 5.
Free for all.
Entries—Burt Lee, Fred Mac, Billy Button.

Much was expected from Billy Button in this race, as he had given evidence of considerable speed. After scoring six times a good start was made. Burt Lee took lead and rapidly marked a gap between his competitors. Fred Mac, driven by Goodwin, went into the air shortly after leaving the wire and kept up a running gait until past the half, when he buckled down to work and developed chain lightning movement for a time, but too late to alter the result. Burt Lee won the heat easily in 2:34 2-5.

Dickey Davis drove Button and S. F. Graham, Burt Lee.

In the second heat Fred Mac was distanced, Burt Lee moving like a machine and winning in 2:30 2-5.

In the third Button came near being distanced, but a spurt from the stretch saved him. Burt Lee took the heat and race in 2:34 2-5.

5TH OCEANIC & S. CO'S CUP
$150 ADDED
Running Race, 3/4 mile dash. Hawaiian bred.
Entries—Billy C., Antidote, Kahuku
Boy.

Jockey Jim Crow was unable to hold Kahuku Boy, who in scoring ran away and circled the track. In the second effort to get away he ran again for nearly a quarter. Billy C. was the favorite, though Antidote had numerous backers. The former led from the half to the wire. Time, 1:18 1/2.

6TH-ROBITA CHALLENGE CUP,
$250 ADDED.
Running Race; 1 mile dash. Free for all. Winner of Cup to beat record of Angie A. (1:45 1/2) and receive $50 extra.
Entries—Lord Brock, Senator Stanford, Duke Spencer, Amarino.

Universal interest was centered in this race. Each animal was in prime condition, and it was generally believed the contest would be for blood. The start was about as even as possible to get. The four horses were in a bunch at the quarter and in about the same position at the half. It was the closest and best entered race ever seen in the islands. Amarino maintained his reputation and came under the wire winner of the first heat in 1:45 1/2, a record held by Angie A.—though a number of outside watches made the time several seconds faster. Senator Stanford was a close second.

7TH-KAPIOLANI PARK PURSE,
$250.
Trotting and Pacing, to Harness; mile heats, 3 in 5. Free for all.
Entries—Silky, Barney, Creole.

The free-for-all was the race of the day. As considerable rivalry existed between the respective horses, an interesting event was looked for and seen.

Creole, working as steadily as a clock, took the lead from the wire and maintained it throughout, shutting out Barney and defeating Silky in 2:22, the fastest mile ever made over any track in the islands.

In the second heat the black horse showed evidence of lameness and suffered extremely. On this account he could not keep his feet, breaking several times, which gave the mare material advantage, which was eagerly taken advantage of. Time, 2:28.

The third heat was a repetition of the second with a like result.

In the fourth and final heat Dickey Davis took charge of Creole, relieving Graham. Although it was plain to most everybody that the horse was suffering, yet he was game to the finish. He broke several times and for the half the mare had it her own way, winning the heat and race in 2:29 1/2.

8TH-PONY RACE, PURSE $100
1 mile dash, for all Ponies 14 hands or under.
Entries—Little Billy, Queen, Tribby,
El Mascot.

It took some time to get the race started, but when commenced it was watched with more than the usual amount of interest. Tribby first, Little Billy second. Time, 2:02.

9TH-SPECIAL PURSE, $150 (IN-STEAD OF KALAKAUA CUP).
Running Race; 1 mile dash.
Entries—Billy C., Magnet.

Magnet took this race, defeating the favorite, in 1:49 1/2. Halstead's filly is only a three-year old and from evidences the animal will be able to lower some records heretofore considered fast.

10TH-HAWAIIAN JOCKEY CLUB
PURSE, $150.
2 1/2 mile Class, mile heats, 2 in 3. Free
for all.

Entries—Little John, Billy Button, Remorse, Daylight, Billy W., McGinty.

This was easily Button's race, and he won it hands down shutting Little Johnny out. Time, 2:38.

11TH-PRESIDENT WIDEMANN'S
CUP $150 ADDED.
Running Race 1 1/4 mile dash. Free
for all.
Entries—Lord Brock, Senator Stanford, Duke Spencer, Amarino.

Contrary to all expectation, Amarino took the lead in this race and won. Stanford was the favorite, but could not begin to reach the Kauai horse. Time, 2:12 1/2.

In speaking of the excellent management of affairs pertaining to yesterday's races, the name of S. G. Wilder should not be forgotten. As a steady and assiduous worker in the interests of good racing, Mr. Wilder has succeeded in placing himself among the foremost.

The following officers performed their duties in a satisfactory manner: C. B. Wilson, starter; Seeley Shaw, John Dowsett and Captain Tripp, judges; R. I. Green and James Mersberg, overseers of the saddling paddock; J. L. Torbert, W. Love and J. F. Kruger, time-keepers.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

It was an off day for favorites. The sports got left all round yesterday.

Sailors from the warships now in port were numerous at the races.

Those who won say Amarino is the fastest horse for a mile in the islands.

Luau were given in Manoa and Nuuanu valleys last night; also at Waikiki.

Bicycles seemed to be the favorite mode of transportation to the races yesterday.

Senator Stanford and Antidote did not run up to the expectation of their owners and admirers.

There was an absence of beer booths and money making games outside the entrance to Kapiolani Park yesterday.

The ladies were as "dead game sports" as the men yesterday. Several came out with $100 and over in their purses.

Receipts at the main entrance to Kapiolani Park yesterday far exceeded the most sanguine hopes. Some $200 more than last year was taken in.

It was a matter of favorable comment that the crowd present at the races yesterday was the most orderly ever seen at a similar celebration in Honolulu.

Admiral Beardslee, Captain Cotton, Captain Cochrane and Lieutenants Wehrlich and Wood of the Philadelphia were among the guests of the Jockey Club.

One of the prettiest booths on the grounds was that in which members of the Wilder family entertained their friends. The booth was very tastefully trimmed in white and yellow bunting and maile. A lunch was served at the noon hour.

Wm. G. Irwin's stand at Kapiolani Park yesterday was used by Mrs. F. M. Hatch as a place for pleasant entertainment of her friends during the races. Over two hundred persons dropped in during the day. In the rear of the stand refreshments were served.

Christian Endeavor Officers.
A Christian Endeavor Union of the societies on the Hawaiian Islands was formed Friday evening, June 7th, at the Central Union Church. The object of this union is to bring the societies into closer relation with each other and to stimulate interest in the Christian Endeavor movement by the forming of new societies. It is planned to have something of a Christian Endeavor convention in Honolulu each year.

The following officers of the union for the year were elected:
President, Mr. Lyle A. Dickey.
Vice-President for Oahu, Miss Richards.
Vice-President for Maui, Mr. David C. Lindsay of Paia.
Vice-President for Hawaii, Miss H. Austin of Hilo.
Vice-President for Kauai, Mr. W. H. Rice, Jr. of Lihue.
Secretary and treasurer, Miss Agnes Judd.

These officers together form the executive committee of the union.

Charles L. Wright, president of Wilder's Steamship Company, will leave on Friday on his regular tour of inspection. He will be accompanied by Charles J. Falk of Mahukona.

AT TWELVE NOON TODAY,

Members of the Legislature Meet in Extra Session

Officers of the Senate Nominating House Caucus This Morning Ready for Business

Legislative sessions after taking in the races and the picnic and properly observing Kamehameha day will be on hand this morning to begin the arduous duties of the Legislature which will open its proceedings at noon today in the Executive building.

The House of Representatives and the Senate will meet in joint session in the Councils room to listen to the President's message, after which they will adjourn to their respective houses to organize. The Councils chamber will be used for the Representatives' hall, and the Senate will hold its sessions in the room adjoining the Foreign office that has been used by Minister Hatch.

Members of the Senate met last evening in the Foreign Office to discuss the best method of placing the President's message before the legislative bodies. Several were opposed to a joint session, believing that in following out the democratic idea of the political institutions of the Republic the message should be presented to each body separately. The majority, however, favored the joint session. Nominations for officers of the Senate resulted as follows: President, W. C. Wilder; vice-president, J. Kaubane; secretary, J. F. Clay; chaplain, H. W. Peck; sergeant-at-arms and messenger, Walter Wright. Hon. H. P. Baldwin will act as temporary chairman until the permanent organization is completed. Another caucus will be held this morning at 11:30. The House of Representatives will meet at 10 o'clock.

The members of the Senate are as follows: Hawaii—J. Kaubane, F. S. Luman, F. Northrup and C. Noddy, Sr.; Maui—A. Hocking, H. P. Baldwin and W. Y. Horner; Oahu—Cecil Brown, Henry Waterhouse, J. A. McCandless, W. C. Wilder, H. W. Schmidt and H. N. Wright; Kauai—G. N. Wilcox and W. H. Rice.

Representatives: Hawaii—E. E. Richards, Robert Rycroft, E. C. Bond and G. P. Kamanoha; Maui—W. P. Haia, Rev. A. Pali, Rev. E. M. Hamani; Oahu—A. G. M. Robertson, D. L. Naone, E. C. Winston, J. C. Clunie, Rev. James Davis and L. K. Hualalani; Kauai—S. K. Kaeo and Walter McBride.

It is anticipated that the permanent organization of both houses will be completed today and everything will be in readiness to proceed to business by tomorrow morning.

HOLY GHOST OWNERSHIP.
Marshal Hitchcock Settles Troubles in the Portuguese Colony

The latest incident in connection with the Holy Ghost, celebrated by the Portuguese, occurred last Monday night at the end of Queen street, in the midst of the Portuguese settlement.

Enshrined in an unpromising looking shanty, and set on a beautiful pedestal, was a silver crown known as the Holy Ghost. The Portuguese society owning the Holy Ghost had placed it in the hands of the owner of the house to be kept three weeks and then passed on to another member.

In the society there exists considerable rivalry between members of the different cliques. Not being pleased at the possession by others of the coveted crown, a representative of an opposing clique made bold to step forward and assert ownership. This did not please the guardian, who refused to accede to any inducements. Finding the owner firm, the opponent called at the police station and swore out a warrant against the guardian, asserting therein his right of ownership.

A policeman was sent out after the man, who refused absolutely to give up the Holy Ghost, protesting all the while that the office of guardian had been granted him by the society to which he belonged. The policeman returned and reported but was sent out again. This time the man was brought to the police station.

The answers given were such that Marshal Hitchcock thought personal investigation proper. A squad of thirty policemen repaired to the scene. Investigation proved that the society in possession was owner of the Holy Ghost and that the man in whose house it was enshrined was the proper guardian.

Marshal Hitchcock allowed the crown to stay where it was but called for $250 as a bond. This was collected from the Portuguese present, who seemed extremely willing to share the burden. The excitement settled down in a very short time and Portuguese devotees continued to visit and worship the Holy Ghost.

UNKNOWNNS AHEAD IN RACE.

Best Baseball Game of the Season
Played Last Saturday.

KAMS NOT IN IT AT ALL.

Heavy Batting and Perfect Field Work
Scores a Victory for Captain Thompson's Ball Tossers—Effective Work of Woods in the Box—Notes.

UNKNOWN ball tossers are in the lead for the pennant of 1895. Captain Thompson and his players earned their position by playing ball. When the clubs were formed the Unknowns were thought to be the weakest among the number, but later events have proven just the reverse.

The attendance at Saturday's game was the largest of the season, this being particularly noticeable among lady patrons. It is safe to say that the audience expected a good exhibition of the game, which they saw, and had it been otherwise the remainder of the series would have suffered through a heavy falling off in the gate receipts. The crowd was heart and soul with the Unknowns from start to finish. The cranks had an inning to their utmost delight and literally hollered themselves hoarse over the ignominious defeat of the Kams, who seem to play a losing game when behind.

It may truly be stated that Woods was in his element, his drops, out and in curves literally bewildered the Kams. As an evidence of this he struck out eight of the opposing team, while Lemon was batted right, left, across and every way, not a single strike out being to his credit.

Up to the third inning the game gave evidence of being a closely contested one, the score standing two goose eggs for Unknowns to one run for the Kams. With grim determination depicted on their faces, Captain Thompson's boys came to bat in the first half of the third. Lemon started in by a series of wild pitches, which kept Pahau working like a beaver. White got first on balls; Willis sent a hot liner over center for three bases, scoring White. Loud cheers greeted Willis' hit and White's tally. The Unknowns then set the pace, which was a red-hot one, by banging the ball just as they liked. A heavy shower gave the Kams the worst of it, they being unable to handle the ball with precision, piling up errors by a series of wild pitches and throws to bases, which proved costly and lost them whatever chance they might have had of winning. The ball became wet and slippery, but this did not prevent the youngsters from hitting it safe in every direction and piling up seven runs before an out was made.

The Kams scored one run in their half of the third and two in the fourth, ciphers being continued to the end.

In the sixth the Unknowns again bunched their hits and added four more runs, followed by two goose eggs with one run in the ninth, defeating the Kams by a score of 12 to 4 in the best game of baseball yet played this season.

Following is the score:

LATEST NEWS FROM MAUI.

Legal Lights Gathered at Court
Term at Wailuku.

KUHELEMAI GUILTY OF MURDER

Young Hee Bribery Case on Trial Another Evening With Makawao Literary Society—Admiral Beardslee Has Pleasant Trip—Preparations for 11th

MAUI, June 8.—The little burg of Wailuku is fairly bustling with movement. There are strangers to be seen on every street and corner.

The June jury term, with Hon. J. W. Kalua on the bench, opened last Wednesday, the 5th inst., and the presence of the following court dignitaries was noted: Attorney-General W. O. Smith, Deputy Attorney-General A. M. Brown, Lawyers Paul Neumann, A. Rosa, J. K. Kahookano, J. L. Kulokou, W. L. Holokakiki, J. Magoon, J. K. Hapuna, J. P. Paehale, M. Kealoha, John Richardson, N. Kepoikai and John Kalama, Deputy Sheriff W. H. King, C. W. Dickey, Josepa and L. M. Baldwin, Japanese Interpreter C. A. Doyle, Hawaiian Interpreter Chester Long, Portuguese Commissioner Canavaro, Hon. Austin Whiting and others. There were fifty-seven cases on the calendar, and most of the day was devoted to striking off cases, calling the jury, etc. During the greater part of Thursday and Friday a native jury listened to the trial for murder of Kuhelemai, who killed a Kula Chinaman not long ago with a gun barrel. A verdict of murder in the second degree was returned.

Manuel Ross of Wailuku forfeited a bail of $150 in the opium case in which he was concerned.

Today, after much sparring over legal technicalities, it was decided to place the Young Hee bribery case before the jury, and hence that will form the chief part of the day's business.

During last evening, the 7th inst., one hundred and five residents of Makawao, Wailuku, Kahului and Spreckelsville attended the June evening of the Makawao Literary Society, held at the Paia residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Simpson. The programme consisted principally of musical selections, which received encore after encore. The "Star" orchestra, piano, violin, bass viol and guitar, played delightfully; there was a Scotch duet by Miss Beckwith and J. J. Hair, a vocal solo by Mrs. Heydtmann, a selection on piano and harmonica by George Aiken, a cornet solo and other events, which terminated in a charade of French origin in five acts, illustrating the word "eloquence." The evening was decidedly interesting.

Admiral Beardslee, who in company with Judge Whiting returned to Honolulu per W. G. Hall of Friday, has been enjoying himself during the week. On Wednesday he visited beautiful Iao valley with a party, and on Thursday, as the guest of Superintendent G. P. Wilder of the Kahului Railroad Company, he inspected Spreckelsville plantation. During his stay in Wailuku he was the guest of Hon. J. W. Kalua, who also has been entertaining Attorney-General and Mrs. W. O. Smith.

The 11th of June promises to be fittingly celebrated both in Wailuku and Makawao districts. At Wailuku there is talk of a grand luau and mention is also made of a dance to be given in the evening by some of the young people. In Makawao the young people have already issued invitations for a picnic and dance.

During Monday evening, the 3d inst., a large and most successful dancing party occurred at the Haku residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dickey.

Inspector A. T. Atkinson left Makawao district for Hana via Ulupalakua last Thursday, the 6th.

Professor Stoeckle with his Edison inventions is entertaining Wailuku people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Palmer leave Maui for Makawao, Kauai, by today's Claudine.

P. B. Aiken has pitched a large new canvas tent, which he uses as a studio, near the Makawao postoffice. He is taking fine photographs of all descriptions.

Joe V. Maciel, the manager of A. Enos & Co.'s Makawao cattle ranch, is to be married today in the Wailuku Catholic church. The bride's name is Miss Esther Rapozo.

The schooner Moi Wahine of Honolulu arrived at Kua Wednesday with a cargo consigned to the Paia store.

The three-master Glendale, Captain Johnson, arrived in Kahului last Saturday, the 1st, 184 days from San Francisco. She brought general merchandise for H. C. & S. Co. and will depart today laden with H. C. Co.'s sugar.

Weather:—Very pleasant if it were not for the dust which the trade winds are constantly stirring up.

HAWAIIAN GAZETTE

SEMI-WEEKLY.

TUESDAY JUNE 11 1895

THE GAZETTE, though issued under date of the 11th, contains the full report of events up to June 12th, the printing being postponed one day in order to give our island subscribers the complete account of the events of Kamehameha Day.

MEMBERS of the Kalaheo Art League have done quite as well as their share in the endeavor to promote an interest in the artistic talent within the island. Certainly the least the community can do in assisting the league is to display an interest in its work. Honolulu can't afford to be indifferent to the work that is being done.

AFTER printing the San Francisco dispatch sent out directly after Skipper Palmer and Col. Ashford arrived in the United States, the editor of the United States Standard of New Bedford, Mass., says, "The above dispatch evidently emanates from sympathizers with the Hawaiian revolutionists, and should be taken with a great deal of allowance as to its truth." It is about time the skipper and his friends had Abraham Lincoln's saying impressed upon them. They can't fool all the people all of the time.

MEMBERS of the Jockey Club certainly have reason to feel gratified with the result of their efforts as displayed in the events at Kapiolani park yesterday. It was a day that every lover of honest horse racing could thoroughly enjoy, a reminder of the days when jockeying was an unknown quantity and every event decided on its merits. The crowd was orderly and everybody was in the best humor. There was some delay in calling the events, but on the whole the day was a complete success and reflected not a little credit upon the officers of the club who have set a model example for future celebrations of a similar character.

A PENNSYLVANIA lawyer who was recently a visitor in the Islands and incidentally made an investigation of W. T. Seward's case, has written a two column letter to the Pittsburg Dispatch in which he says: "The institute of detention, where the criminals are detained, is called the prison. Practically it is a penitentiary, jail, workhouse, house of correction, etc., all combined in one. While not so large or elaborate as the penitentiaries of Pennsylvania, the prison is clean, dry and airy and in every way adapted for the uses intended in this climate. The writer and one of Pittsburg's prominent steel manufacturers made an investigation of this prison. We tasted the bread, stewed mutton and potatoes, all of which had been prepared by bakers and cooks chosen from among the convicts, and found them to be more savory and palatable than the meals in some of the hotels west of the Mississippi river at which we were obliged to stop during our travels." His impressions of the political conditions are as follows: "To a visitor, who has met the former royalists, the supporters of the Republic and the merchants, the Government unquestionably seems vigorous, stable and popular, truly a 'government of the people, by the people and for the people.' And if the wishes of the many visitors to the islands from the United States are granted, the young Republic of the Pacific will not perish from the earth, nor will endure forever." This gentleman had an opportunity to make an unbiased study of all phases of life in this country even to that of the occupants of the 'dungeons,' whose imaginary ills have been paraded before the public. After the sensational productions from various sources to which this country has been subjected, the above is quite refreshing to say the least.

TO PROVE ROMANISTS LIBERALITY.

The self-proclaimed liberality of the Roman Church has been put to test by a committee from the Methodist Church, appointed to call the attention of the Romanists to the fact that the Protestants of Hawaii are not allowed to exercise the same liberty of conscience in religious matters as the people of the United States. This has been repeatedly shown by the persecution of Protestant evangelists and Bible agents who have suffered on account of the local bigotry of the Catholic Church.

The committee does not report that progress in their work which might be expected from the numerous expressions of good will for the religious liberty of the United States that have often emanated from the pope and the papal delegates. Two registered letters most respectfully written have been addressed to Pope Leo and though ample time has elapsed no reply has been received from the Vatican, and the Methodist committee has requested Cardinal Gibbons, who is going to Rome, to call the pope's attention to the matter. The committee in its report says: "The church of Rome is patient and persistent, the Methodist church is going to be equally patient and persistent. Before this contest is ended American citizens will know to what extent the church of Rome is the friend of religious liberty."

The Catholic clergy have often expressed their gratitude for the freedom enjoyed by their church in the United States, and they have even gone so far in many instances as to pose as the champions of religious liberty. The fact is they have nothing else to do but be liberal in the United States. That is the ground work of the entire nation. In South American countries, however, the conditions are different. Roman Catholics have had control from the outset, and a splendid opportunity is now offered for that Church to show that the spirit of religious toleration is genuine. The question is a fair one. Why are the Protestants of Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia not allowed the same liberties as the Romanists in the United States? The head of the Church certainly ought not to feel it beneath his dignity to answer such a query.

RESULT OF HIGH STANDARDS.

Drawing conclusions from the premises laid down by our correspondent, Patient, the best thing for the human family to do is to lay aside drugs and trust to luck for recovery from the maladies to which the human frame is subject. After hearing the opinions quoted from such noted authorities there is certainly more or less reason for those who depend upon the study and investigations of men whose life work is given to alleviating the sufferings of their fellow men, to consider within themselves what haven of refuge there is for the afflicted to seek.

It is a saying old as the hills, that the more a man studies the less he knows. The younger the medical student the more he depends exclusively on drugs and less upon a common sense treatment which prescribes drugs for one person and a saw-horse and wood-pile for another. It is the ignorant physician that claims a sure cure in every instance by drugs that have been found useful and helpful in a few cases. By years of careful study physicians, like everyone else, become impressed with the impotency of the tools used to stay the ravages of disease, yet not one of them would throw aside what they already have because the results do not equal theoretical deductions. Such opinions as those quoted in Patient may be regarded as the result of high standards.

ONE UNIVERSAL CREED.

Rev. Dr. ... the sermon yesterday morning touched the chord of truth that ought to find a responsive vibration in the heart of every church member in the city. It is the idea of the universal church, that wipes out all petty lines of creed and diction, and puts every church worker, every church member, every Christian, into one well organized working body following the broad principles laid down by Christ's teachings. The word of churches is coming to be slowly perhaps, but none the less surely. Men are coming to realize what a narrow-minded policy they are pursuing by separating into cliques and factions of what may well be termed the technicalities of the Bible. But after all every student must come to the conclusion that the technicalities are of man's manufacture.

Different creeds have served their purpose and we would not presume to reflect upon the labors of the past, but the best work of the future is to be accomplished along the lines that give the most complete simplicity in the rules of the church and give the Bible to the individual to guide his personal relations with God and his fellow men. Every man is master of his own fate. No one can live the life or answer to the judgment for him. The church draws men in, it teaches the sources of life everlasting, it starts them on a righteous way and endeavors to hold them there, but it is assuming an uncalled for responsibility by holding that this or that individual creed points out the one and only proper way to heaven.

The rich man's church, the poor man's church, the liberal church or the bigoted church, represent the eccentricities of human nature and as such are not the creatures of Christ's word and work. And every division from one strong, central organization, unanimous in its desire and activity to spread the gospel tends to weaken rather than strengthen the working force and its power to do good.

There never was a better opportunity to show what can be done by a molding of creeds and the working out of principles of the advanced thought of the generation, than is offered in this country today. Evangelical churches profess to be one in spirit, and it may remain for this little community to show how the word is carried out in the work.

THE Christian Advocate says that more nonsense is written of deceased persons than on any other subject, and recalls an incident of a minister, preaching at the funeral of a man of most disreputable character—a common drunkard, a miser and profane—who delivered his usual closing exhortation and called upon those present so to live as to be prepared to meet the old man in another world—"something that everyone in the house, even to his own family, hoped to avoid." As has been said, it is a good maxim to speak well of the dead, but it must be confessed that many funeral eulogies do more injury than good to the memory of the deceased.

ONE of the planks on which the republicans of Bell county, Kentucky, stand reads as follows: "We favor the annexation of Hawaii to the United States and control of the Nicaraguan canal by the same government, and we oppose any intervention by our country in the affairs of the nations of other hemispheres, in accordance with the advice of Mr. Washington, and we are as bitterly opposed to any foreign power securing territory in or about the Central American country, or, in other words, we ask for the enforcement of the Monroe doctrine."

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER is credited with the ambition to accumulate a fortune of $500,000,000, and he seems in a fair way to realize his fondest hope. If he could buy a new lease of life in which to enjoy the fruits of his labors there might be something in his aspirations to follow the path of his footsteps. The ultimate aim is all right, but when their times are limited before the public it is well to remember that the fame and show of every country is made up of men who do not regard the accumulation of money as the chief end of man.

LEGISLATIVE WORK TO BEGIN

With the convening of the Legislature today the reorganized republican government of Hawaii will be complete in every feature and well on its way to complete the successful history of the past two years. Seldom, if ever, has there been a time when a more unanimous spirit obtained among the members of our legislative body to dispose of the measures brought before them promptly and in a manner that shall redound to the best interests of the country and its people. The very fact that the members are called to meet in extraordinary session to act upon measures resulting from the general metamorphosis through which the political institutions of the country are passing, measures that are in a large degree to complete the work of the constitutional convention, places a personal responsibility upon the people's representatives assembled today quite as important as that assumed by the men who drafted the constitution.

Citizens of Hawaii are looking to members of the Legislature for quick work, a concentration of labor that shall result in quality rather than quantity in the enactments that are to become the law of the land: a business session in every sense of the word. From the disposition of the individual members thus far displayed we believe that the expectations of the people will be fully realized, and that no time will be wasted in finishing the work of the session as mapped out by the President's message. Bills of secondary importance, which may be expected to make their appearance will undoubtedly be put in the hands of committees to pass upon and report to the regular session. The land law is looked upon as the measure of paramount importance, and opportunity will be given for a full discussion, and ample hearing given representatives of the various interests that are now in their infancy, and the success of which depend upon the inducements offered by the Government. Public works are not to be slighted, and sufficient appropriations will, doubtless, be allowed to carry on much needed improvements on the various islands of the group.

THE idea of taking Colonel McLean to task for making an official call upon Mrs. Dominis is as idiotic as the source from which it emanates. The fact is Mrs. Dominis is particularly and solely in care of the military department of the Government, an order to that effect having been issued, and Colonel McLean as the active head of the military forces might very properly be called to account if he did not see to it that she was receiving proper attention. In no way could he perform the duties of his office better than by a personal interview. We have no doubt that Mrs. Dominis' welfare is safe in the hands of her friends, but it is the colonel's business to see that there is not the question of a doubt that such is the case.

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

Report has it that Thurston is sick of the Republic business for Hawaii, and favors the restoration of the monarchy with Kailani for the royal figure head. We are inclined to guess that the story is too far-fetched to be reliable. Thurston isn't that kind of a fickle teetotum. The restoration of the monarchy would be a relapse that no enlightened Hawaiian, much less Thurston, could contemplate with any degree of satisfaction. Thurston has good reason to be disgusted with the treatment of the Cleveland crowd, but he knows it would be playing into their hands to restore the monarchy. Besides he knows, or ought to know, that the administration doesn't represent the American people. He and his fellow patriots have only to keep their courage up until the last remnant of the discredited Democracy is swept from the White House. Then under a new administration more truly representative of American opinion and American policy Hawaii will become a part of the American union. "Bide a wee," is the word, "and dinna weary."—Troy N.Y. Budget

LATEST NEWS FROM KOHALA.

Closing Exercises of Seminary Prove Big Success.

Fourth of July to be Properly Celebrated—Better Mail Service Wanted

KOHALA, June 8.—The closing exercises at the seminary previous to the summer vacation took place on June 6th. The large school-room was crowded with the relatives and friends of the pupils, and those interested in educational work. The pupils were all tastefully arrayed in white. The exercises lasted from 10 a. m. to 12 50 p. m., and the pupils acquitted themselves in a manner that must have been as gratifying to the painstaking teachers as it was to the patrons and friends of the school. The examination in the various studies was interspersed with entertainment in the way of recitation and music, and the high efficiency manifested was a pleasing surprise in view of the considerable changes in the staff of teachers during the year.

Miss Paulding principal, Miss Garnett assistant, Miss Ayer matron, together with the pupil teachers have constituted the entire working staff for several months past. Miss Ayer leaves at the close of the present term, and negotiations are in progress to secure a matron and a music teacher for the beginning of the new school year in September. This seminary in common with similar institutions in other parts of the islands in offering Hawaiian girls the advantages of home training together with intellectual training is doing a work that cannot well be overestimated.

The 11th of June will be observed here as a general holiday according to present indications. A public meeting is called for Saturday evening to decide concerning the Fourth of July celebration. The tendency seems to be to celebrate it as an Hawaiian holiday rather than American, though it is likely there will be a happy combination of the two. It is understood that the Japanese here will also hold their celebration on the same day, so it is likely there will be plenty of opportunity for holiday enjoyment on the Fourth.

The weather remains exceedingly dry with very light evening showers. The Jennie Wand came into Mahukona with a cargo of general merchandise and left during the week for San Francisco with a load of sugar.

Rev. and Mrs. Ostrom and Miss Maud Wright left for Honolulu by last Kinau, and Father Oliver has returned from Hilo. Senator Northrup went to Honolulu by last steamer, and Representatives E. C. Bond and Kamaoha go by the present steamer to attend the Legislature.

Mrs. Bond presented her husband with a boy baby on Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hind expect to leave for the Coast during the month.

There is a general desire that the Representatives in the Legislature may find opportunity to secure for Kohala a more frequent mail service.

HILO'S CELEBRATION.

Japanese Outdid Their Honolulu Brethren at Making Merry.

HILO (Hawaii), June 8.—The Japanese had a splendid day today to make merry over the success of the arms of their country over the Chinese. The turnout was immense. The day was perfection. About 10 a. m. they commenced to come into Hilo from Amaula, Wainaku and Papaikou, all dressed as soldiers—infantry, cavalry, and artillery; the last mentioned had three mounted cannon drawn by mules. The cavalry, about seventy-five, came from Papaikou. Their costumes were extra nice and must have cost about $20 each, their horses were in fine condition. The infantry did not make quite so good a showing. There were about 300 in the turnout. Marshal Susumago was very elaborately gotten up, and was mounted on a beautiful black horse.

The Hilo boarding school band furnished the music. The Japanese never do anything by halves, and are entitled to great credit for getting up such a splendid display. They secured a portion of Wilson's large stables and improvised a theater, and gave three performances in the evening. The theater as well as the grounds throughout the day were filled to overflowing. Japanese on the plantations were given a holiday, and every workman was on hand to enjoy the day. In the evening an elaborate display of fireworks was given.

Timely Topics

June 8, 1895.

It is a striking commentary on the diplomacy of Messrs. Cleveland, Gresham and Company that while Nicaragua turned first to the United States for help in her trouble with England, the chief honors of the settlement are carried off by Nicaragua's neighbor, Salvador.

A problem so difficult for the Cleveland administration to handle in any satisfactory way, before Corinto was seized, has now been easily solved through the Salvadorean Minister in London.

It is now asserted in Washington that the suggestion to Salvador to put herself forward was made by the Department of State. Be that as it may, it does not take from her the credit of her act.

It only raises the question why British occupation of Corinto was awaited before a settlement was reached. Of course, Salvador was powerless to remonstrate or reason with England while threatening her would have been out of the question. Salvador has not a solitary warship, nor is she of such importance to England that she could be counted upon to help her. She simply satisfied herself with the briefest examination that Nicaragua could and would pay the money demanded by Great Britain, offered herself as guarantor, and the whole thing was over.

Salvador is the smallest sovereign state in this hemisphere. In area she is less than New Jersey; in population not equal to Connecticut. But in Nicaragua's hour of distress it is she, rather than that has proved herself the giant and the United States the pigmy. It is said that "Coming events cast their shadows before them." Can it be possible that the United States will again play the part of the pigmy as regards diplomacy in connection with these islands?

Imitation is the sincerest flattery and there can be no better evidence of the superiority and value of the Pennsylvania Lawn Mower. We regard durability as the first importance, and with decent care one of the mowers ought to last a life time. It is one of the lightest and easiest running lawn mowers ever placed upon the market, a child can run it and considers it is fun. A well kept lawn is one of the many things that go to make a home attractive and inviting.

We have the famous Good-year & Shaumut garden hose, made of 4-ply heavy pure rubber, and will out wear any other hose on the market. Economy is something that we should practice.

If you have anything that is worth keeping we should endeavor to keep it well. We have a reel for the preservation of hose when not in use, that is compact and at the same time facilitates your moving the hose from one part of the yard to another.

Take a few minutes of your time some morning and invest in one of our Ball Nozzle Lawn Sprinklers. No directions are necessary. Turn on the water—the ball does it all. The Ball Nozzle once seen sells itself. It is a perfect lawn sprinkler and reproduces the April shower. Another point is that it is one of the best tree irrigators, and this feature should be thoroughly and carefully investigated. What a blessing during the season of the south winds. It is simple in construction, very compact and amazingly cheap.

Some forty-six members of the new native company (G) were drilled Monday night by Colonel McLean. Fine progress was made.

Admiral Beardslee has returned from a short trip to Maui. He was met at the dock by the Philadelphia cutter, and taken aboard the flagship.

Two divers from the Philadelphia and two from the Bennington spent Monday scraping the bottom of the former warship, preparatory to her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Walbridge are at the Occidental Hotel. They will settle in San Francisco. Mr. Walbridge was formerly manager of Wailuku plantation.

The Salvation Army and friends, some thirty in all, spent yesterday at Remond Grove where an "old time" picnic was held under the cooling shade of the trees.

The public is cordially invited to attend the opening ceremonies of the special session of the legislature by the president on Wednesday, 12th inst., at 12 o'clock noon.

Saturday night's exhibition at the Kiloana Art League was very successful. A large number of persons were present. It was a matter of surprise to many that such a good showing of art work could be made in Honolulu.

Popular Naval Officers.

Among the Bennington's officers are Lieutenant W. P. Elliott and Chief Engineer J. K. Barton. Both are well known in Honolulu and deservedly popular. Lieutenant Elliott was formerly on the Adams and counts his friends by the hundreds in the islands. Mr. Barton was here during the stormy days of 1874 when American and British forces were landed to quell the riot incident over the election of Kalakaua as king over Queen Emma. He was then on the Benicia, in which vessel Kalakaua paid his first visit to the United States, leaving the islands in November, 1874. Mr. Barton says he is pleased to have an opportunity to renew old acquaintances and form new attachments, having always kept in mind the pleasant hours spent in Hawaii among the people, for whom he entertains a strong aloha.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

WESTMINSTER, Cal., March 21, 1894.—Some time ago, on awakening one morning, I found that I had rheumatism in my knee so badly that, as I remarked to my wife, it would be impossible for me to attend to business that day. Remembering that I had some of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in my store I sent for a bottle, and rubbed the afflicted parts thoroughly with it, according to directions, and within half an hour I was completely relieved. One application had done the business. It is the best liniment on the market, and I sell it under a positive guarantee. R. T. HARRIS, or sale by all medical dealers. JENSON, SMITH & Co., Agents.

PLANS FOR COMING YEAR.

Work of Closing Session of the Evangelical Association.

DESIRE SPECIAL DIVORCE LAW

Law Requested That Shall Apply Especially to Kalaupapa Settlement and Increase Contributions After to Kamehameha School Next June

The Evangelical Association held its final session at Kamehameha church Monday morning. After the usual devotional exercises, led by Hon. H. Waterhouse, the order of business was resumed.

A committee was appointed to urge upon the legislature, soon to assemble, such legislation as will lessen the illegal traffic in liquor. A long discussion was had on the difficulties in the way of enforcing such laws as are now on the statute book in reference to the living together of men and women without marriage, or while married to other persons.

A committee was appointed to ask the Attorney-General to prepare such a law as will not conflict with the law segregating lepers, yet permit divorce and remarriage in the case of persons sent to Kalaupapa. There are more than thirty couples there living man and wife at this time. The Maui Association made such a stir in regard to the increase of this social evil on that island, that the officers of the law have taken up the matter in earnest, and a wholesome fear of the law has taken the place of the previous carelessness.

A circular letter was read, sent by the Conference of Missionary Societies of the United States, to the churches in the various mission fields, established by American missionaries. The letter was an exhortation to all mission churches to reach the point of self support as soon as possible, that the contributions of the American churches be freed for the new work now opening in new fields. The Hawaiian churches were long since made independent of the American Board, support their own pastors and benevolent work. Since 1863 the Hawaiian Evangelical Association has had the charge of all matters pertaining to the Hawaiian churches, the American Board assisting by various grants in aid, but disclaiming all ecclesiastical jurisdiction. Rev. Dr. Bingham urged the ministers and church members to greater activity, and higher purposes in carrying forward Christ's redeeming work. It was voted to appoint a committee to reply to the letter. It was made the duty of this committee also, to send out a special letter from the association to all the Evangelical churches in the Hawaiian Islands suggesting new methods of church activity, and especially asking of the Hawaiian churches such increase of contributions as will provide for the whole expense of the Marquesas and Gilbert Island missions $2000, the present contributions of the Hawaiian churches amounting to only $1500.

Some of the ministers wished to have the annual meeting held next year during the week before the closing of the Kamehameha schools. But the natural conservatism of humanity prevailed, and the association adjourned to meet next year, as usual, on the first Tuesday in June.

The members of the association accepted an invitation from the teachers of the Kamehameha schools to visit those institutions in the afternoon. Through the courtesy of the tramway company a special car was placed at their disposal. The Girls' school excited unbounded admiration in its arrangements, furnishings and conveniences. The Preparatory school was made specially interesting by some spirited chalk drawings on the blackboards of two modern warships in all the furor of naval combat. The Recitation hall, so massive, and yet so artistically finished, was away beyond their ideas of schoolhouses. The hospital, though now without any patients in the wards, seemed as attractive as the coziest cottage home. In the annex to the museum they were simply bewildered at the strange sights, innocently inquiring if the Hawaiians ever lived as the Australian lay figures are made to look in their bark hut. But best of all was the dinner and the military drill held that afternoon for the benefit of the visitors.

A decision in the "Prince" Cupid case will be handed down during the week.

BEFORE J. C. BICKERTON AND J. C. BICKERTON, J.

E. K. NAHAOLE and KIA NAHAOLE, PLAINTIFFS, VS. KAAHAU (W.), S. K. KAHAI, C. H. ROSE, LAI SAI, G. LONG AND LOANE VS. S. K. KAHAI, HIS GUARDIAN ad litem.

Parol evidence is admissible to identify and locate the land described in the deed to land not embraced in its descriptive words.

Mere failure on the part of the owner of land to object to its possession and improvement by others, does not estop him from claiming the land, his title being of record and he having done nothing to induce a belief that he had no title.

The act of an agent does not estop his principal unless done within the scope of his authority.

OPINION OF THE COURT BY CHIEF J.

This is a supplemental bill for partition. The original bill was brought for the reformation of a deed, the plaintiffs claiming that their deed, made in 1878, to the defendant Kaahu, was intended to convey a definite portion of apana 4 of Royal Patent 1885, L. C. A. 6245, No. 1, but that by mistake the location of the land was left uncertain. The Circuit Judge held that the evidence as to location was not sufficiently clear to entitle the plaintiffs to the relief prayed for. Upon appeal this Court sustained the decree of the Circuit Judge, to the extent of refusing the relief prayed for, but held further, and against the defendants' contention that the deed conveyed the whole of apana 4, that it conveyed an undivided part thereof, equal to 266 square fathoms and 7 square feet, and remanded the case to the Circuit Judge, with leave to the plaintiffs to file this supplemental bill for partition. Nahaole et al. v. Kaahu et al. 9 Haw 600.

The Circuit Judge, upon the supplemental bill, answer, replication and proofs, decreed that partition be made.

The defendants, on this second appeal, object to a partition upon the grounds, (1) that, by the construction placed upon the deed by the parties thereto, as shown by their acts, the whole of apana 4 was conveyed, and (2) that the plaintiffs are estopped by their conduct from claiming any interest in this apana.

The acts and conduct relied upon in support of these contentions are mainly the following: The plaintiff, Mrs. Nahaolelua, at the time of her conveyance, in 1878, resided on Maui, and knew but little about the land, as her property had been in charge of Mr. Cartwright who had been her guardian; her husband, Kia, came to Honolulu, measured the land in a rough way, and arranged the sale; the defendant Kaahu, after her purchase, took possession of the whole of apana 4, filled in wet and marshy portions thereof, and had a road opened thereon; at various times, beginning in 1885, she sold portions of the land to other persons; she and her grantees erected buildings and made other improvements on the land; in 1891, Mr. Cartwright, then Mrs. Nahaolelua's agent, took a mortgage of the land from Kaahu; the plaintiffs were repeatedly at the place or in its vicinity and presumably saw and knew of the occupation by Kaahu, but took no steps to assert their rights until 1891, when they brought ejectment, but discontinued, and brought this suit in 1892.

The first question, that of the construction of the deed, is settled by the former decision of this Court, which is a part of this case, and is expressly alleged in the supplemental bill and is admitted in the answer. The Court did not, it is true, in its opinion upon the construction of the deed, advert to the acts or conduct of the parties as bearing on the question of the quantity of land conveyed, but it was unnecessary to do so. There was no latent ambiguity on that point. The deed conveyed 266 square fathoms and 7 square feet of Awar 6245, which contains 13,906 acres. By no construction of which its language is capable could it be made to cover the whole of apana 4, which contains 1,704 acres; and parol evidence was inadmissible to add to or contradict its language.

In Aylett v. Keaweanani, 8 Haw. 320, cited by defendants' counsel, there was a latent ambiguity as to which two of several lots were intended to be conveyed, and extrinsic or parol evidence of the intention of the parties, as shown by the possession of the grantee, and the acquiescence of the grantor, was admitted to identify and locate the lots. In the language of the Court, quoting from a New York decision, the evidence was admissible "to ascertain the particular subject to which the words apply," not "to add to or contradict the language" of the deed, "to ascertain the intention of the parties as expressed in the writing, and not to make the deed operate upon land not embraced in the descriptive words." So, in the present case, parol evidence was considered for the purpose of locating the land in apana 4 of the Awar, but could not be considered for the purpose of extending the operation of the deed to the whole of that apana.

Secondly, assuming that the deed was correctly construed as conveying only a portion of the apana, are the plaintiffs estopped by their conduct from asserting their title to the remainder of the apana? It does not appear that they took any active steps or actually did anything to induce or warrant the belief that they had no title to the land. They merely knew of the possession and improvement of the land by others and were silent. It is well settled both here and elsewhere that mere acquiescence, consisting of knowledge and silence, does not work an estoppel, unless, because of special circumstances, there is a duty to speak. A person has a right to assume that others will not enter and expend money upon his land, except at their own risk, without first watching the records and making necessary inquiries; and if they neglect to pursue the ordinary means of ascertaining in whom the title lies, and suffer in consequence, it is their own folly. They cannot blindly take risks and then cast the loss, if any, upon the owner, who has done nothing to encourage them in their action.

In Kela v. Pahuilima, 5 Haw. 525, the defendant purchased land from one in possession without title, and put two buildings on the land; there was adverse possession for over 15 years; the plaintiffs often passed by the premises and presumably knew of the adverse possession and improvements, but made no claim or objection. The Court held that there was no estoppel, saying, "a purchaser is bound to examine the title." * * * The defendant had every opportunity to know that Pahuilima, of whom he bought, had no title to the land. The plaintiff does not appear to have done anything to induce him to act on a different state of things. The facts of this case are almost identical with those of the case at bar.

In Waisha v. Nabolowaa, 6 Haw. 271, the plaintiff, after ejectment at law, brought her bill in equity for an account of moneys expended in improvements. She and her husband under whom she claimed by devise had held adverse possession for 19 years and erected buildings on the land; they had presumptive knowledge of the true title. The Court refused the plaintiff relief, saying: "The only point in her favor is the apparent acquiescence of Nabolowaa in the expenditures made on his land. But it does not seem to me that a person is bound to object to improvements being made on his land, where the facts show that the occupier had knowledge of the true title, and where there is no fraud or deception alleged or shown." See also Kingman v. Graham, 51 Wis. 232.

But it is said that the recorded deed of plaintiffs to Kaahu was too uncertain to amount to notice to subsequent purchasers. If so, then it was their duty either to refrain from purchasing or else to make inquiries of the plaintiffs. The deed certainly did not justify them in supposing that the plaintiffs had conveyed the whole apana. In Aylett v. Keaweanani, supra, the Court, holding that there was no estoppel, said, "we require that the facts should show silence with intention to deceive, such as would amount to constructive fraud. The deed to Kalsikuwa (under whom the plaintiff claimed) was on record when the deed to defendant was made, and defendant cannot now say that he was ignorant of the true state of the title. If, as claimed by the defendant, the record of the deed of 'two lots in Kaakopua' was too indefinite to apprise defendant that the land he was negotiating for had already been conveyed, it certainly should have put him on inquiry." The present case is stronger against the defendants, for here they claim under the uncertain deed, while the defendant claimed against it.

The other Hawaiian cases, cited by defendants' counsel, Greenwell v. Paris, 6 Haw. 318; Kahanai v. Kohala Sugar Co., 1b. 696; Kalseokei v. Kabele, 5 Haw. 51; and Kamohai v. Kabele, 3 Haw. 532; differ materially in their facts from the case at bar, and contain no rulings contrary to the above doctrines.

It is contended, however, that the taking of a mortgage of the whole apana (with other lands) from the defendant, Kaahu, by Mr. Cartwright, who was then agent for the plaintiff, Mrs. Nahaolelua, was a positive recognition that the title was in Kaahu. In reply to this it is sufficient to say that, although Mr. Cartwright was at that time the agent of Mrs. Nahaolelua, he did not in that transaction act as such agent. He acted for himself personally. The act of an agent does not bind his principal unless done within the scope of his authority. In this instance, Mr. Cartwright did not merely act without the scope of his authority as agent; he did not act as agent at all.

The decree of the Circuit Judge is affirmed.

CENTRAL UNION PICNIC.

Happy Gathering On Punahoa Campus Yesterday

The annual picnic of the Sunday school of Central Union Church was held yesterday on the large and pleasant campus of Oahu College.

At an early hour the scholars of the school began to go out to Punahoa with hearts and minds full of holiday anticipation and with the excitement which attends the beginning of a day of pleasure.

The day from beginning to end was perfect, bright without undue heat, and dry without being sultry. The cool trade wind came pleasantly through the light shade of the algaroba grove, the white, fleecy clouds sailed in small, broken patches across the blue southern sky, and over all was the bright sunshine—loved so when here and missed so when absent—all making the outward conditions for a happy day.

The various committees appointed by the Sunday school carried out their parts admirably, and nothing was lacking in the arrangements to make the day a success. Ten Hawaiian and American flags hung side by side from trees over the main driveway. Entering the gate of the grounds there appeared a happy scene. The colorful, bright, tropical look of the assembly first struck one. Hundreds of children, mostly in white, with bright sashes, ran here and there over the grounds, happy as the birds in the trees above them. The hospitality of the school had been extended to the Portuguese Sunday school, and as usual in Honolulu there was a mingling of races and colors and kindred peoples.

There were between 1000 and 1200 present. For the amusement of the children there were swing, beanbags, baseball, tennis, croquet and other games, and all were played without the smallest accident to any one. For the refreshment of the hungry multitude a noon lunch was provided by the ladies of the church with characteristic liberality. Fifteen hundred bottles of soda water and ginger beer, 150 gallons of lemonade and ice water, 15 gallons of milk for the coffee, 1 calf, 60 tongues, 3 hams, 90 quarts of baked beans, 25 large bowls of salad, 705 loaves of cake, an unlimited number of rolls and loaves of bread, sandwiches and 100 watermelons were provided.

The children were called from their sports, seated on the ground, quieted, while Rev. Mr. Birnie said grace, after which efficient waiters supplied all with food. After lunch games were resumed till about 3 o'clock, when the street-cars began carrying the tired but reluctant children back to town. It was a day of hearty "good will to men," in which there was no distinction of class or race, but all present felt, at least for that day, the bond of the common brotherhood of man and a sincere love for Hawaii.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF Makawao. W. O. AIKEN, Deputy Collector of Taxes, vs. H. A. HAHN, Assessor.

To the Marshal of the Hawaiian Islands, his Deputy, or any Policeman in the District of Makawao, Island of Maui, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon H. A. Hahn, in and for the District of Makawao, to appear before me, at my office in Makawao, upon the 31st day of May, 1895, at 10 o'clock a. m., there to answer to W. O. Aiken, Deputy Assessor of Taxes in and for the Second Taxation District of the Hawaiian Islands, in a plea wherein the plaintiff declares and says:

That said defendant, H. A. Hahn, is lawfully indebted to this plaintiff, in his official capacity as assessor, in the sum of twenty-two and 45-100 Dollars for taxes assessed the property of said defendant, on the books of the Assessor of Taxes for the District of Makawao, Island of Maui, for the years 1892, '93, '94 and '95, and that said defendant, H. A. Hahn, has failed and neglected, and still doth neglect and refuse to pay the same, or any part or portion thereof.

That said plaintiff, W. O. Aiken, doth demand of said defendant, for said sum of twenty-two and 45-100 Dollars, as by law provided, and for costs of Court.

Notify the said H. A. Hahn that upon default to attend at the place, day and hour above mentioned, judgment will be rendered against him ex parte, by default.

Given under my hand this 25th day of May, 1895.

PETER N. KAHOKULU'ANA, District Magistrate of Makawao.

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and attested copy of the original summons in said case, and that said Court ordered publication of the same, and continued said case until the 28th day of June, 1895.

NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Term of the Fourth Circuit Court, to be held at Honolulu, Hamakua, Hawaii, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of July, is SALUBRIOUS CLIMATE OF KONA.

Sights at Kailua and Popular Sea Breeze Hostelry

Paradise for Tourist Health Seeker and Others. Unparalleled Resources of Section Ancient Land Marks.

SEA BREEZE HOTEL (Kailua, Hawaii), June 6.—If all the comforts of a home, salubrious climate, picturesque scenery, interesting scenes, ancient land marks, etc., are what the tourist desires, the health-seeker seeking, the over-worked individual anxious for, then by all means come here, if for but a brief stay.

Kailua has attractions by the score, being one of the most historic spots in the islands. Hereabouts the Kamehamehas lived and roamed, their residences, with Kalakaua and Kapiolani, homes of the missionaries—the old Thurston residence, erected long ago and still standing, are among the sights that should and do delight alike the tourist, stranger and kamaaina. Within easy reach and just distant far enough to add zest to the ride, is Kealahou Bay, where Captain Cook was killed and buried, the spot being marked by an appropriate monument.

The sufferer from pulmonary troubles will find here a climate unsurpassed for its salubrity and wonderful remedial effect.

The country adjacent produces excellent coffee and abounds in all kinds of fruit.

Dr. McWayne's place is not far from here, who, with others are accomplishing wonderful results in improving this section.

The Sea Breeze hostelry, which has no superior here or elsewhere considering its natural attractiveness and resources, is situated but a few yards from the landing, directly on the route of the steamer Hall to the volcano. Riding, driving, croquet—games of all kind are available for use of visitors and guests.

The luau given to Kapiolani was successfully held in the old Kalakaua premises. Many natives and foreigners combined in paying their respects to the Queen Dowager. The old musical pavilion was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers, while all sorts of fruits and eatables adorned the tables. The waves close by made a delightful refrain and accompaniment to the Hawaiian songs sung. The kahlilis used were all made of flowers and ferns, and woven by young girls. It was a pretty sight.

Among the guests now enjoying life at Sea Breeze are Miss Lyle, who is much improved since her arrival, Mr. Buchholtz and Mrs. Davis of Kealakukua bay.

ROADS AND RAINS IN KAU.

Farewell Party to Miss Angus. Good Cane Crops.

KAU (Hawaii), June 5.—Kau is still being favored with glorious rains that make the planters happy and the cane grow. Several heavy showers have fallen since last steamer. At this season of the year the cane throughout the district has never looked so well as it does at the present.

Naalehu mill is grinding. Honuapo and Pahala will soon follow. Hutchinson plantation distinguished itself last year, and is now paying a monthly dividend. The prospects are that the coming season the crop will be still larger.

Mr. Walton, of Pahala, is building large reservoirs to store water, which will be used to irrigate and flume cane. The new road approaching Pahala from Hilea road is to be let by contract, which is a wise plan, as former work done by day labor proved very expensive. The general opinion is that Mr. Rowell should have an assistant residing on Hawaii, who could make visits through the different districts several times during the year and inspect public works. Mr. Bruner would be a good man for the place.

Kau is one of the most peaceable districts in the Republic, due to the well-disciplined police under Deputy Sheriff Yates.

A farewell party was given Tuesday evening, June 4th to Miss M. Angus by Mr. and Mrs. Walton of Pahala. Festivities began at 7:30 with a peanut hunt, followed by several new and entertaining games, which continued until refreshments were served at 11:30 after which all joined in a whirling waltz. Miss Angus has been a great success in her visit to Kau. She has been here but a short time, but has made many friends. Her departure is regretted by many. Mr. and Mrs. Walton will accompany her to Honolulu.

THE EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION.

Same Officers of Hawaiian Board Elected—Rev Birnie Added

Examination of Students of North Missionary Institute Special Vote of Thanks

The morning of Friday was given up to the examination of the students of the North Pacific Missionary Institute. The examinations were in general introduction to the New Testament, English composition and church history.

After the usual devotional exercises reports of committees were in order. After the reports of the secretary and treasurer of the Hawaiian Board had been formally approved, the present incumbents were unanimously re-elected to their respective offices. The pastors were urged to exercise special care and diligence in searching out suitable and well-qualified candidates. It was voted to urge the Hawaiian Board to secure as soon as possible a fund of $10,000 in order to offer from the interest of such fund a more adequate support for such students as may hereafter enter the institute.

The same persons were re-elected for a term of three years as members of the Hawaiian Board, except that Rev. D. P. Birnie, pastor of the Central Union Church takes the place of Hon. W. O. Smith, whose duties as Attorney-General engross his time and thoughts. Mr. Smith is still retained on the finance committee, where his legal advice is most valuable.

It was recommended as one means of lessening church dissensions to limit the number of deacons to nine at the utmost. Kaunakapili has had thirty-three. Kawaihau has two deaconesses. A rule adopted three years ago provided for their election by classes, each for a limited term, so arranged as to make possible a new election each year.

Pastors were recommended to take special care that members residing elsewhere for a year or more should connect themselves with the church in the parish where they reside. Some churches refuse to recognize membership after three years' absence. The island associations were recommended to discuss this looseness of church care, and insist upon observing the rules in regard to giving letters of dismission and recommendation, as provided by the Church Manual.

A special vote of thanks was passed in acknowledgment of the gift of $25,000 from Mrs. E. N. Castle and family to the permanent funds of the Hawaiian Board, and also to Hon. C. R. Bishop for a like donation of $10,000 the previous year.

It was resolved to enter upon the records a special minute in recognition of God's wonderful providences in the history of Christian work in these islands for the past seventy-five years; and pledging the members of the association to renewed consecration, fidelity and diligence in carrying on the Lord's work in all its departments.

DOCTORS IN DIN OF BATTLE.

Remarks of Dr. R. P. Myers at Board of Health Banquet.

Abundant Evidence Showing Excellent Service Rendered by Physicians. Refutation of Opinion.

Replying to a toast at the banquet given visiting physicians by the Board of Health not long since, Dr. R. P. Myers made the following remarks in refutation of the prevalent opinion among a large number of people regarding the inability of physicians to engage in other than professional duties.

"Who was the commanding general at Bunker Hill? No less a personage than Dr. Warren."

"General Mercer, who died in victory at Princeton, was a surgeon at Culloden, wounded under Braddock and actively practiced medicine in the interval between the French and Indian war and the Revolution."

"Colonel Edward Hand, of the Pennsylvania Rifles—later a general officer—and after the war a member of Congress, was a medical practitioner before the call to arms."

"Dr. Wm. Eustis, a distinguished medical officer of the Continental army, was Secretary of War from 1809 to 1812."

"Passing to the American Civil War, Dr. Woodhull, U. S. A., says 'We find one officer, an assistant surgeon, who, with continuous service, became a colonel of the regular infantry; another, an assistant surgeon likewise, organized the best system of military signals.'"

"The late Surgeon-General Lawson was a lieutenant-colonel of volunteers in the Florida war, and still held his medical commission."

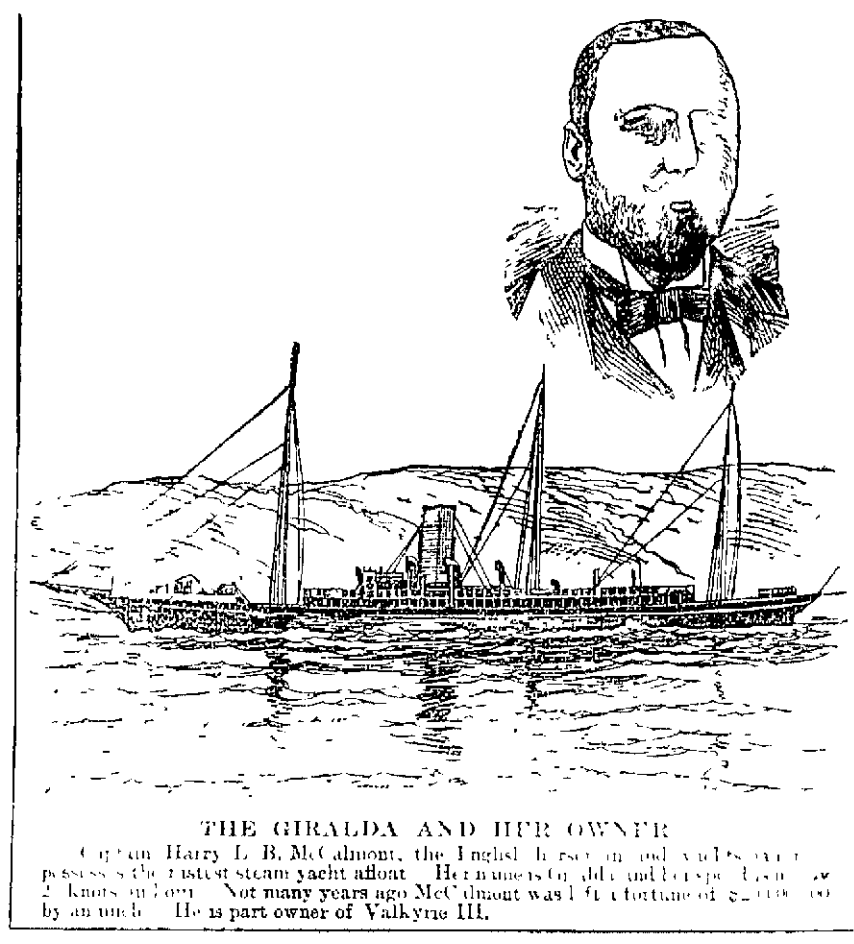

"We are often said to be in bomb-proof places and not under fire or danger. I am told by Indian fighters that such is not the case."

"Grasson fell at St. Clair's defeat, Gallin perished with Dade, and Lord with Custer."

"General Andrew Jackson published in a general order the following: 'The medical staff has merited well of the country, and the general would not do justice to his own feelings were he to withhold from Dr. Keiv, hospital surgeon, who volunteered his services, and Dr. Flood, the first tribute of appreciation, deserved by them for their medical skill and personal bravery.'"

"General Wood, in a special report, speaks of Assistant Surgeon Prevost, whom he employed as aide during the battle of Molino del Rey, Mexico. The general officer was wounded and died a martyr. The latter was Assistant Surgeon Roberts, who took command of Company I, Fifth Infantry, in the battle of the Clouds, and was killed."

AN EFFICIENT PUBLIC SERVANT.

Brief Life Sketch and Work of
Walter C. Weedon.

AGENT, SALESMAN AND WRITER

Came to the Islands When a Lad—Long and Faithful Career in Mercantile Line—Strong Advocate of Government
Resignation as Assistant Tax Assessor

Walter C. Weedon, who has resigned from the tax office to assume an important position with the J. T. Waterhouse mercantile establishment, is an old kamaaina in the islands, coming here first as a young lad with John Waterhouse. Soon after his arrival he took charge of No. 10 store, and was at that time undoubtedly the youngest man in charge of any business in Honolulu. He was quite successful as a salesman, and built up not only the city business, but quite a trade with the other islands.

WALTER C. WEEDON.

After six years of faithful service, Mr. Weedon left to reside in Cleveland, Ohio, taking with him as his wife one of Puna-hou's popular teachers, formerly Miss Ida Sloan, whose parents were living in Cleveland. For several years he acted as cashier and special agent for the State of Ohio for an extensive life insurance company, afterward taking charge of large land and cattle interests in Kansas and Missouri, at the same time editing the National Galloway Herd Book, traveling extensively in the interest of the same.

Four years ago Mr. Weedon returned to Honolulu, upon solicitation of Mr. Dillingham, and early in 1893 he entered the tax office as deputy assessor and collector for Oahu, where his work speaks for him as an efficient and able public servant and officer.

Mr. Weedon was among one of the first to espouse the Government's cause in the revolution of 1893 and was one of the first white men to stand guard at the Palace entrance on January 18, 1893. He is still a corporal in Company B, and served with his company in the late trouble. He frequently furnishes excellent articles for the press in Missouri and Ohio.

Mr. Weedon has traveled extensively through the States and territories, in England and Europe; is also well posted in island trade and speaks Hawaiian fluently. While the Government loses an efficient officer, his friends wish him the greatest success in his new responsibilities and bespeak for him a generous patronage.

KAMEHAMEHA LU'AU.

Over 700 Sunday School Scholars
Fed and Made Happy.

The annual luau given at Kawaiahae church for the Sunday school of that and Kaunakapili church was enjoyed by over 700 persons who partook of the good things in regular Hawaiian style.

Shortly before 1 o'clock the Sunday school of Kaunakapili, headed by the Hawaiian band, marched into the grounds over seventy-five strong, dressed in the regulation uniform of the school.

Tables for the luau were spread under the temporary meeting place. Ferns and greens of various kinds formed the table cloth, upon which were placed pork, meat and fish, cooked in the Hawaiian style, poi, watermelon, cake and soda water.

During the progress of the luau, Professor Berger and his band, stationed near by, furnished delightful selections. The ladies who had charge of affairs were very much gratified to find that after paying all the expense of feeding 700 people, they still had $10. Among those present were Mrs.

W. F. Allen and Miss C. Allen, Chief Justice Judd and Miss H. C. Judd, Mrs. Eleanor Graham, Mrs. Dillingham, Dr. Cooper and visiting native ministers.

Court on Maui.

Up to last Saturday but one case had been disposed of by the Maui Circuit Court. That was case of murder against Kubelamai, who killed a Chinaman by beating him over the head with a gun. The jury returned a verdict of manslaughter in the second degree. Messrs. Kepokai and Richardson were appointed by the court to represent the prisoner. Sentence not yet passed.

The session will continue for about two weeks, there being some fifty cases on the calendar.

WANTS DAMAGES FROM HAWAII.

Private Honeck Sends a Claim to the State Department.

He Thinks $50,000 Will Soothe His Wounded Feelings—Not a Conspirator—Committed No Crime.

SEATTLE, May 25.—Frank Honeck, a native of Missouri, who, until recently, was a member of the secret service of the Hawaiian government, where he had made a record for himself by discovering the firearms which had been smuggled into the country by the royalists, only to be thrown into a dungeon later and then deported to the United States, has been in the city for several weeks, and yesterday, through his counsel, Charles Fishback, forwarded to Secretary of State Gresham a claim for $50,000 indemnity against the Hawaiian government for the outrage of which he claims to have been the victim.

Honeck, in making the demand, takes the position that he is an American citizen and therefore entitled to the right of protection in a foreign country. He says he was in no way a conspirator against the Hawaiian government, and that he committed no crime whatsoever.

In support of his contention he exhibits a paper showing that, notwithstanding he was forced to leave the country, he did honorable service in the militia and accordingly received an honorable discharge.

Honeck's case is the most peculiar of all the alleged conspirators who were deported, and it is believed that he has a more meritorious claim than either Ashford, Cranston, Mueller, Johnston or the others whose cases have received so much attention in the American press. Honeck, who is but twenty-eight years of age, rather short in stature, but well built, is a painter by trade, and went to Honolulu about ten months ago.

AN ARBOR DAY FOR HAWAII.

Coming Session of Legislature to Set Aside a Day.

President Dole to Act on Suggestion of Dr. Northrop History of Arbor Day in the United States

THE FIRST session of the Legislature under the Republic, which will be convened next Wednesday, there may be enacted legislation regarding Arbor Day, a promise to this effect having been made Dr. Northrop by President Dole.

The honor of celebrating the first Arbor day in the United States belongs to Nebraska. April 22d is designated by her statutes, and the day was first observed in 1872. The state board of agriculture, realizing the necessity of repairing the ravages made upon the forests by reckless tree-cutting, passed a resolution, offering prizes to those who should plant the most trees. The credit of this movement is due to Mr. J. Sterling Morton, the secretary of agriculture. The newspapers published this resolution far and wide, and the result was that over 1,000,000 trees were planted in Nebraska in that year.

Other states began to look into the matter, and other Arbor days were established. Iowa made a law in 1882, providing for an annual Arbor day. New Jersey, Maryland and Indiana established the day in 1884. Indiana has two Arbor days, one in the spring and another in the fall. In Minnesota, although the day has not been established by law, it has been observed since 1885. Pennsylvania passed a law in the same year, making two Arbor days.

In 1888, Connecticut, Kentucky and Massachusetts passed laws providing for the day, and in 1887 Illinois, Nevada, Rhode Island and Tennessee followed. In his proclamation in 1889, the governor of Illinois said: "Let the children in our schools, the young men and women in our colleges, seminaries and universities, with their instructors, co-operate in the proper observance of the day by planting shrubs, vines and trees that will beautify the home, adorn the public grounds, add wealth to the state, and thereby increase the comfort and happiness of the people."

The following year brought New York into the line of tree-planting states; an "Act to encourage arboriculture" was approved April 30, 1888. It was as follows:

"Section 1. The Friday following the first day of May in each year shall hereafter be known throughout this state as Arbor day.

"Section 2. It shall be the duty of the authorities of every public school in this state to assemble the scholars in their charge on that day in the school building, or elsewhere, as they may deem proper, and to provide for and conduct, under the supervision of the city superintendent or the school commissioner, or other chief officers having the oversight of the public schools in each city or district, such exercises as shall tend to encourage the planting, protection, and preservation of trees and shrubs, and an acquaintance with the best methods to be adopted to accomplish such results."

Wisconsin, Colorado, Oregon and Texas established the day in 1889.

In many states where the law provides for an Arbor day, the day is appointed by the governor. And in several states where the day is not established by law, as in Alabama, Vermont, and others, the holiday is largely observed.

In 1890 thirty-seven states were observing an annual Arbor day. Millions of trees have been planted since this movement began, and the day is rapidly coming to be regarded as a national spring festival.

PATIENT'S POINT OF VIEW.

Physicians Say Drugs Are Worthless, What Are Patients to Do?

MR. EDITOR:—I have been somewhat distressed since reading the learned "Study of Hawaiian Climate," credited to Dr. Russell, in your paper of May 25th. Among a deal of other matter the doctor is quoted as saying, " * * Hence the necessity of individualizing each case, to wit: of unraveling the intricate knot of internal, constitutional on one hand, and of external, climatic and other numerous agencies peculiar to the time and place of accident. * * The more we depart from the mysteries of vitalisms and spiritualism, the larger grows the distance separating us from Hahnemann's and Consortes' legerdemain. * * The faith in drug specifics is losing ground more and more every day. In this respect the wise words of my highly respected teacher, Professor N. Pirogoff, are full of profound meaning. He used to say that the professional career of a physician can be divided into three periods. The first, when he faithfully believes in everything that he was taught in school. The second, when he believes only in the results of his own experiences; and the third, when he loses faith in both. You, Mr. Editor, can appreciate my distress and that of many of your readers who have to call in a medical man once in a while. But I have been more profoundly distressed by falling upon other quotations from the pens of the world's wisest and best physicians. A few of which, with your permission, I will quote. Professor S. M. Grass, of the Medical College, Louisville, Kentucky, who said: "Of the essence of disease, very little is known—indeed, nothing at all." Professor Valentine Mott said: "Of all sciences medicine is the most uncertain." Dr. Magendie, a French physician, said: "Gentlemen, medicine is a great humbug." The Dublin Medical Journal said: "What we call medical science is nothing but a jumble of inconsistent opinions." Sir Astley Cooper, F. R. S.: "The science of medicine is founded on conjecture, improved by murder." Professor Ramage, F. R. C.: "I fearlessly assert that in most cases our patients would be safer without a physician than with one." Dr. James Johnson, F. R. S., editor of the Chirurgical Review, says: "I declare it is my conscientious conviction, founded on a long experience and observation, that if there was not a single physician, surgeon, man-midwife, chemist, apothecary, druggist or drug on the face of the earth, there would be less mortality and less sickness than now prevails." Dr. Cogswell, of Boston: "It is my firm belief, that the prevailing mode of practice is productive of vastly more evil than good; and were it absolutely abolished, mankind would be infinitely the gainer."

With such an array of opinions on the prevailing and popular mode of practice it might be wise to try Hahnemann's "legerdemain."
